Dear Fellow Kachchhi Oswals,

Pranam and Greetings of the Season.....

During the past two years, I enjoyed serving the KOJAIN community. I came across many community members having hearts for the goodwill of the community and in helping each other. These people serve selflessly doing the Humanitarian activities.

During my two years term, KOJAIN accomplished number of tasks and achieved another milestone. July 2006 Sammelan in Washington D. C. Area was a huge success. The event was executed by KOJAIN youths. July 2007 Mini-Sammelan was overwhelmingly enjoyed by the attendees. Communication to the community was accomplished by publishing Five Newsletters during the two years. Level of communication was increased through e-mail using KOJAIN Yahoo group. KOJAIN website (www.kojain.com) was maintained and updated frequently. Communication with the Board of Directors (BOD) took place using e-mails, Six Teleconference Calls and one face-to-face meeting. KOJAIN Merit Scholarships were awarded to Twelve High School Graduating Students during 2006 – 2007. The next Sammelan is being planned during Aug 1 -3, 2008 in Detroit, Michigan. KOJAIN was represented in India during 2006 - 2007 at key events organized by Seva Samaj, Bidada Sarvoday Trust, Kutch Yuvak Sangh and other organizations.

Nominations for 2008 – 2009 KOJAIN BOD were sought and all positions were filled with nominations. All nominees were elected unopposed. The future of KOJAIN is in the hands of well qualified and dedicated persons, who will take KOJAIN to another height.

The baton is being passed to the 2008 – 2009 KOJAIN Board Members, who will take over starting Jan 1, 2008.

During the years, if I have hurt your feelings knowingly or unknowingly, I ask your forgiveness. Michchhami Dukkadam to all.

Thank you all for your excellent support and cooperation. Wishing all a very happy, enjoyable and memorable Holiday Season and the coming Year 2008..

Navin S. Dedhia

 President, KOJAIN
